

ALEXANDER SARMINIO

3255 ESPINOSA STREET • CARROLLTON, TEXAS 75010

Residence: (972) 325-2004 • Cell: (972) 499-3683

alexander234@tx.rr.com

SUMMARY

- Accomplished civil engineer with a solid background in project management.
- Strong academic and on-the-job training.
- Extensive fieldwork experience covering a wide spectrum of construction activities.
- Recognized expertise in material testing.
- Compelling negotiator with communication skills in English and Spanish.
- Effective customer service skills with an inherent as well as trained sense of empathy in understanding and dealing with the needs and desires of people of diverse cultures and backgrounds.
- Demonstrated computer literacy.
- Hands-on energetic team leader with an established record of multi-task proficiency, creativity, resourcefulness, organizational command, and problem-solving know-how.

EXPERIENCE

Project Manager

TEXAS CMT, INC. • DALLAS, TX

January 1998 to present

Supervise as many as six subordinates in the laboratory and at various field sites during peak periods at this company that serves the construction industry by specializing in construction materials testing and geotechnical engineering. Work daily with, and attend on-going training in, the latest techniques and regulations affecting the industry in testing and inspection of soils, earthworks, concrete, steel, asphalt, masonry foundations, post-tensioning, aggregates, and structural steel. Regularly interface with municipalities, contractors, owners and engineers about projects concerning buildings, roads, and bridges. Prepare proposal estimates of necessary construction materials engineering and testing. Contact and inform clients of test results in both written and oral format. Originally began working in the company when it was called GEE Consultants, Inc.

Manager and Owner

ALEX IRRIGATION AND LANDSCAPING • DALLAS, TX

June 1989 to January 1998

Managed all aspects of this company that designed and constructed residential irrigation systems and landscaping. Determined appropriate pipe sizing, selected watering systems, and installed controller apparatus. Obtained customers by referral of satisfied clients. Employed temporary workers in accordance with the size of jobs. Administered billing as well as all business accounting functions.

Manager and Owner

CONSTRUCTORA ALEJANDRO • GUADALAJARA, MEXICO

January 1983 to June 1989

Operated this business that specialized in remodeling of residential and commercial buildings. Presented estimates and proposals. Did the design and upon receiving contracts, served as project manager of all phases of alteration and construction. Administered all business management and accounting functions. Generated customer satisfaction by maintaining comprehensive cost controls while ensuring extremely thorough quality assurance.

Superintendent

CONSTRUCTORA YACATARI • MEXICO CITY, MEXICO

June 1974 to January 1983

Managed projects for this construction company that undertook large state and commercial building projects, including road segments and sewage systems. Served a key role in hiring and directing as many as 400 personnel under contract at any one time. Administered such functions as account management, estimating, material procurement, and budgeting.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering

UNIVERSIDAD AUTONOMA DE GUADALAJARA • GUADALAJARA, MEXICO
(Premier Civil Engineering University in Mexico)

1973

CERTIFICATION

*Texas Department of State Health Services Radiation Control Program
American Concrete Institute Field Technician Certification Program*

References available upon request